

NICE, November 6th.

Jules Ferry is seriously ill.

WASHINGTON, November 6th. When Secretary Tracy returned to his desk in the Navy Department to-day he found a telegram from the Union Iron Works Company of San Francisco, builders of the Charleston, in response to his telegram of Saturday last. In this message the Iron Works Company says that they believe they could show 7400 horsepower with a reduced propeller on another trial of the vessel, but in order to avoid delay and trouble they will withdraw their demand for a new trial and leave the matter entirely in the hands of the Secretary. Upon this Secretary Tracy ordered the acceptance of the Charleston the question of penalty to be considered as the final settlement with the contractors.

ZANZIBAR, November 6th.

Information has reached here of the massacre of Dr. Peters, the German-African Colonization Society and the leading spirit of the Vito Company, and that the entire party was massacred near Karkori on the Tana river. One European, supposed to be Captain Rust, and one Somali escaped.

The party is supposed to have been killed by Somalis or Gallas, though the Masai are also credited with the butchery. It is unlikely that the Masai had a hand in the massacre, as their country is farther west. Karkori is 150 miles from the coast, following the course of the Tana river. The latter forms the eastern boundary of the British East African Company.

Peters in following the course of the Tana established German stations on the east bank, to the great disgust of the English, who finally headed him off and followed his example. Though his ostensible object was to relieve Emin Pasha, he lost no opportunity of advancing German interest, and thus gained the enmity of the British East African Company and their allies.

Karkori is in a part of the country beyond British influence and inhabited by Gallas and Somalis, both warlike tribes. There are no details of the massacre, but no doubt is entertained of the death of Peters and the extinction of his expedition.

LONDON, November 6th.

It has just come to light that since Bradlaugh was taken sick his house has been flooded with documents, in all of which he was informed how he could be saved from damnation, if he would join each one of a dozen church denominations. Every tract society in Great Britain has taken a hand in deluging the atheistic member of Parliament with religious literature.

Sir Henry James continued his speech for the Times before the Parnell Commission to-day. He quoted from speeches made by Michael Davitt in 1880 to show that the object of the League was under the cloak of a combination between the forces of the moderates and extremists belonging to the American Clan-na-Gael and the Irish Constitutionals in the work of keeping Ireland unsettled. Sir Henry referred to speeches by various Parnellites to prove that the agitators were ready to resort to criminal means to effect their purpose.

William O'Brien has applied for a new trial against Lord Salisbury. Molloy, member of Parliament, in a speech at Sheffield this evening, said that the Parnellites had in their possession documentary evidence proving the complicity of Government officials in a conspiracy against the Irish, and the publication of the evidence would cause a sensation greater than the Commission revelations. He said it was intended to expose the plot immediately after the opening of Parliament.

BERLIN, November 7th.

While the Peters expedition was ascending the Tana river Lieutenant Tidemann, in a quarrel, was compelled to shoot four Masais. It is probable, therefore, that vengeance was the motive for the massacre of the party.

Among the items in the new naval estimates before the Reichstag that have aroused the bitterest hostility of the opposition is that for 450,000 marks for a new yacht for the Kaiser and Kaiserin. It is announced that the Hohenoller is too small, though she is a steamer of 1700 tons, and the Kaiser wants a larger yacht.

In reference to this question, a gentleman thoroughly qualified to speak said to the Herald correspondent: "The Emperor is passionately fond of travel. As a young man he had no opportunity to see the world at all. Now he is free to do as he pleases, and is anxious to learn as much as possible by personal observation of the outside world."

"He is a great admirer of nature and a great lover of art, and what he is especially anxious to do is to see in every country he visits the leading men and to judge for himself in what essential matters life in other countries differs from life in Germany."

"The great idea of the new yacht planned for the Kaiser," continued this gentleman, "shows that much longer voyages will be undertaken in her than the old Hohenoller was equal to. It is not likely that cruising in European waters will satisfy the Kaiser's thirst for information. Asia and Africa will be visited, and it is not unlikely that the Kaiser may cross the Atlantic and see with his own eyes, young eyes the United States, or 'new Germany' beyond the seas, as Germans like to call it, and of which he has heard and read so much."

MADRID, November 7th.

An explosion occurred to-day in a dynamite factory near Bilbao. Four men were killed and a great many injured.

It is reported that the German flag has been hoisted at Port Durdord. Captain Wisemann, with a large force, will attack Sandan to-night.

The report of the death of the wife of Prince Alexander of Battenberg is declared to be untrue. Sir Henry James resumed his speech before the Parnell Commission to-day in behalf of the Times. He read extracts from speeches made by Parnell, Davitt and others, in which the speakers advocated boycotting. He contended that the persons who had made these speeches were responsible for the crimes in Ireland following their delivery.

England's indignation against France has subsided. London's Lord Mayor has received notice that he is to receive the ribbon of a commander of the Legion of Honor, and that his name was omitted from the first list by accident.

A conference between the leaders of the Boulangist party was held to-day at the residence of Boulanger on the island of Jersey. Sixty prominent members of the party were present. The authorities of the island cautioned the leaders of the hotel that he would be held responsible in event of any overt demonstration arising from the conference.

It is stated that the Boulangist leaders debated propositions for important alterations in the programme of the party.

The steamer Columbia of the Hamburg and American Packet Company passed Sandy Hook at 1 P.M. last Thursday, and docked at Southampton at noon to-day, in king the fastest trip to that port on record. Her running time was six days and eighteen hours.

WASHINGTON, November 7th. Thomas F. Bayard, ex-Secretary of State, and Miss Mary Willing Clymer were married at 1 o'clock this afternoon, at the residence of the bride's mother, in the presence of a most distinguished company.

PARIS, November 8th.

The number of visitors on the closing day of the exhibition was 370,000. The number of tickets presented at 5 francs for every admission after 5 o'clock was 510,000. The total number of paying visitors to the exhibition was 25,000,000 as compared with 12,000,000 in 1878 and 8,000,000 in 1877. Of the 30,000,000 tickets issued 28,000,000 have been utilized. The Eiffel tower receipts have been 6,500,000 francs.

ATHENS, November 8th.

The Government organ asserts that at a recent dinner at the British Legation Count Herbert Bismarck told Premier Tsouplaki that Germany unreservedly recognized Turkey's sovereignty in Crete, and it behaved Greece to accommodate her policy to the peaceful efforts of the Great Powers.

Tricoupi, it is said, frankly replied that Greece recognized Turkey's rights in Crete in just the same measure as the Powers recognized Turkey's rights in Egypt, Cyprus, Roumelia and Bosnia, and, therefore, would not limit the freedom of her policy by binding promises.

SKIBBERK, (Ireland), November 8th.

Intelligence reached here from Crook-haven this evening of the total loss of the steamer Quinnmore, Captain Freney, which was bound from Baltimore, M., to Liverpool with a general cargo. All went well on the voyage until Monday, when the cargo caught fire. The crew set to work at the pumps, and all day and night worked hard in trying to subdue the flames, but to no purpose, and to make matters worse a thick fog set in on the coast in the afternoon, and the captain lost his reckoning. While the dense fog prevailed the unfortunate vessel struck on rocks beneath Three Castle head near Crook-haven.

By this time the fire had reached the cabin, which was literally a mass of flames, yet the gallant captain and his intrepid crew kept at work at the pumps until the doomed vessel was about to sink, when they lowered the small boats and had barely time to make their escape when the steamer went down.

In the rush for their lives the men were unable to save any clothing. They landed at Crook-haven this evening with only what they wore. The Quinnmore had a crew of seventy-five hands and there were 895 head of cattle on board. She was built only this year at Belfast by Messrs. Harland & Wolff. She was a fine screw steamer of 2285 tons, and was owned by W. H. Johnston & Co. of Liverpool.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.), November 8th.

Colonel William Cassius Goodloe, a member of the National Republican Committee, stabbed and killed Colonel A.M. Swope, a prominent Republican, at Lexington, this afternoon. Goodloe was shot and seriously wounded.

The men met in the Postoffice corridor, and when each saw who the other was they glared at each other fiercely. Then some angry words followed, when both suddenly drew weapons. Swope a pistol and Goodloe a clasp-knife. As Swope a pistol and Goodloe a clasp-knife. As Swope a pistol and Goodloe a clasp-knife.

After several blows had been struck by Goodloe, Swope fired again, missing Goodloe. After firing the second shot Colonel Swope fell on his face and, weltering in his blood, died almost immediately. On his person were found thirteen wounds, they being in the back, arms, and in his breast. Immediately after the killing Colonel Goodloe went to a physician, where his wound was examined. He was perfectly cool and made disposition of his property.

The cause of the difficulty was a statement made in the Republican Convention on May 14, 1888, by Goodloe, that fully two-thirds of the Fayette county delegation in the convention did not speak to Swope.

Colonel Goodloe has been for years prominent in Kentucky politics. He was Minister to Belgium under Hayes and is a member of the National Republican Committee, being chairman of the Committee on Speakers. He is 43 years of age, married, and has eight children. Colonel Swope was 45 years of age and unmarried. He was Collector of Internal Revenue under Grant and Hayes.

HALIFAX (N. S.), November 8th.

It is reported that there is much distress among the fishermen of the Bay of Fundy and Lower Province, West Halifax. It is confirmed that nearly half the population in each village is on the brink of starvation, owing to the failure of fishing. Twenty or thirty families in each place, numbering nearly 200 persons, have consumed every scrap of food they could obtain. Provisions will have to be sent to them or many will undoubtedly perish from hunger.

The dervishes recently attacked Gondar, the capital of Abyssinia, and burned the city. Subsequently the Abyssinians attacked the dervishes and defeated them. They killed three of the chiefs.

CITY OF MEXICO, November 8th.

The Negro Colonization bill passed the Senate yesterday. General Cortes, once a terror of the frontier, is now dying. Spanish steamers will soon begin running from Cadix to Mexico and the Argentine Republic.
